Miss Pauline Graessel left for her home at Webster Groves, Sunday, after spending several days with her cousin, Miss Louise Vasterling.

Martin Lorberg and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fossold, whose home is about four miles west of town. It was just a small gathering to celebrate the Confirmation of the Fossold's youngest daughter, at the Lutheran Church, Sunday morning.

The custom of putting on new clothes for Easter is very ancient and is common to the great festivals of all religions. On the central feast of the Moslem year it is considered absolutely necessary for every man and woman to wear clothes. The Easter dress and the Easter hat of modern times, so widely advertised by our city merchants are therefore not in any way an incongruity, but emphasize the spirit of the day quite as the Easter egg, which is supposed to typify the germ of a resurrection of a life. Easter morning signifies forever that our best ideal, even though slain and buried by the enemies of all goodness, cannot be kept in the grave.

While society was not exactly surprised at the announcement of the engagement of two of the Cape's most popular young people, it was greatly pleased as both Miss Vasterling and Mr. Charles Himmelberger are favorites in the social set of our city. The engagement was announced Saturday afternoon by Miss Vasterling at her home on Sprigg street, when she entertained at cards for her cousin Miss Pauline Graessel of Webster Groves. Bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon and after the refreshments were served, Miss Katherine Himmelberger passed dainty corsage bouquets of rainbow sweet peas to each guest and hidden in the flowers were two tiny hearts suspended on pink satin ribbons, with the initials of the bride-elect and her fiance and June 1914. This announcement naturally brought forth much enthusiasm and many good wishes for this charming young lady and the wedding in June will undoubtedly be an event eagerly looked forward to by Cape Girardeau society.

Those who were present were Mesdames Harry Himmelberger, Ivan Hall, Fred Wood, Misses Mary Kochtitzky, Irene Williams, Regina Friant, Mary Burroughs, Lillian Pate, Edna Sebastian, Elizabeth Davis, Pauline Beckmann, Bertha Reitor, Katherine Himmelberger, Pauline Graessel, and Marguerite Oliver.

Miss Vasterling is considered by many, as one of the Cape's most beautiful young women, and is an accomplished musician, and a daughter of A. C. Vasterling of this city. Mr. Himmelberger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Himmelberger, and one of the most promising young business men of the Cape. He is at present connected with the Phillips Lumber Co.

A lazy man is as good as a dead one only he takes up more room.

The Ladies Aid of the Christian Church will meet Thursday afternoon at the Church.

The Ladies Society of the Methodist Church met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Fred Naeter.

Mrs. Wm. Bryan returned from Carbondale, Saturday afternoon, where she was looking after her interests in and about that city.

The J. O. C. Society held a very enjoyable meeting Friday evening at the Presbyterian Church. After the installation of officers, a most tempting luncheon was served, and the balance of the evening was passed in sewing and social entertainment.

One of the pretty fads of the season for neckwear is the frill of net or lace or fur with an inch-wide band across the throat. This protects the back of the neck and the throat, but does not interfere with the open front of the blouse. These neck pieces are also made of feathers.

Mrs. R. L. Lamkin entertained the Bridge Club Tuesday afternoon at her residence on Merrivether street. The ladies enjoying the afternoon's game were Mesdames W. S. Albert, J. Cairns, W. H. Harrison, W. Bryan, Ed. Drumm, Misses Marjorie Post, Alice and Mary Griffith. The honors of the game were won by Miss Post and Mrs. Ed. Drumm.

The Knights and Ladies of Security had a most interesting meeting Tuesday evening at their Club rooms in the Vandeven Bldg. Nine new members were taken in. The Drill Team will have a social meeting next Tuesday evening, and they are making plans for an excursion, just as soon as the weather permits. The proceeds of which will go towards buying the uniforms for the team. Their next Drill practice will be Thursday evening.

Mrs. Horace Siberell was given a pretty surprise at her home on 44 South Spanish street, Tuesday afternoon, by her friends in honor of her birthday anniversary. The Ladies Aid of the Christian Church gave Mrs. Siberell a large birthday cake, and the members of the Eastern Star sent a handsome big box of flowers. Most delightful refreshments were served. Both Rev. and Mrs. Siberell are very popular members of the Christian Church, and the latter received many good wishes on this happy occasion.

A meeting was held Monday evening by the Camp Fire Girls, and one of the important subjects brought up during the meeting was the decision to start a public reading room, whereby the citizens in general may profit by this excellent proposition. The organization is very eager to secure the encouragement and aid of the Cape's people, and are busy endeavoring to find a suitable location, and are open to all suggestions or donations towards this work. Miss Mary Kochtitzky is chairman of the committee to look after the selection of a convenient site, and will report the progress she and her assistants have made at the meeting to be held Friday night at 7 o'clock, at 401 Themas street, at which time the young ladies invite all parties interested to be present, and also urge the various clubs of the city to send a representative.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Massengill motored to Illmo and the adjoining towns Monday.

A Pittsburg woman, member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, writing on the subject of the coming congress in Washington, at which it is likely that a great many subjects of interest will be discussed and members will speak their minds pretty plainly, says that it is hinted that representatives of the press will be excluded from the rooms where the discussion takes place. Mrs. Henry Mann, the vice-president general, in charge of the organization, and Mrs. Charles W. Bassett, historian general, are with Mrs. Story in the storm center of controversy.

The ladies of the Episcopal church are very enthusiastic over the bazaar they have planned to take place Thursday of Easter week. The main idea of the bazaar is decided original and the affair promises to be one of the most unique ever held in the Cape. There will be seven booths, and each booth will represent a day in the week, and articles will be sold accordingly. Monday being "wash-day," and Tuesday, "ironing day," the things the housewife needs most at this time, she will find to her satisfaction at the booths. The Wednesday booth as sewing and mending day; Thursday will be reception day, and the things to wear will be sold here, also tea will be served; Friday is cleaning day and at this booth mostly aprons, dusters, etc., will be purchased; Saturday as baking day will find many good things to eat; and Sunday will have candy and Easter articles for sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thompson of 331 South Lorimer street, celebrated their third wedding anniversary, Sunday. The date of their wedding fell on Saturday, but that those of Mr. Thompson's friends who would not be able to attend on that day, might be present, the celebration took place Sunday. It was a great surprise to Mr. Thompson, who is foreman of the boiler makers at the Frisco shops, to arrive home from the works yesterday and find the guests assembled to wish both he and Mrs. Thompson the best wishes of the day, but he was equal to the occasion, and gave them all a royal welcome. An elaborate dinner was served, after which the guests spent an enjoyable afternoon in various games and amusements. Many handsome gifts were received, among them being a cut glass cream and sugar, solid silver bread tray, silver mesh bag, silver crumb tray, hand embroidered pillow slips, and a box of stationery. Those surprising the happy couple were Messrs and Mesdames Bern Sands, Bert Stone, Geo. Pair, Messrs B. Willer, Arthur Carroll, James Henshaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Christ Wolf celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary Sunday at their home on Bellvue street. A sumptuous supper was served the guests, August Cordell, the porter seeing that everyone present was well supplied with the many good things to eat. The house was attractively decorated with carnations and ferns. Many handsome presents were received by the happy couple, among them being: A fancy silk bag from Mr. and Mrs. Stock of Augusta, Mo.; nut bowl and water pitcher from Mr. and Mrs. Hall and family; set of cake plates from Dr. and Mrs. Howard; a toilet set from John Doyle and Hermine Kopper; set of soup plates from Mrs. Gus Kopper; cake plate and salad bowl from Mr. and Mrs. G. Wisemann; set of silver tea spoons from Mr. and Mrs. Koeck and baby; salad bowls from Mr. and Mrs. F. Keller of Gordonville; cake plates and salad bowls from Mr. and Mrs. Ketterer and baby; meat platter from Mr. and Mrs. E. Ruehmann; a quart of Peach brandy from Mr. Dempsey; a large white wedding cake from Tom, Dan and the Geese; fancy plate and almond dish from Mrs. R. M. Phillips; from the president, vice-president, treasurer, secretary, shipping clerk, Tom and Dan, a luncheon set; and from the Fishing Club, Will Kopper, John Herbst, Emil Wolters, Herbert Albert, Chas. Hitt, Henry Muelbach, Gus Hanny, Nick Weiler, Will Wolters, Claude Speak Albert Summers, Otto Jerome, a handsome dinner set.
